“ I'm also the oldest granddaughter of his oldest Linda. One thing she always says is that I share that same beautiful smile and I will continue to carry my grandfather smile.

“ I'm Amelita Sims, daughter of my grandpa's oldest daughter Linda Hudson. I loved talking to grandpa. He gave me away at my wedding. Whenever I came upon a mountain experience, he would tell me, "You can do it! You're Bill Brown's granddaughter!" He was right! His integrity and strength is flowing through my veins and I can do anything because I'm Bill Brown's granddaughter.

“ Dorothy and family, I am sending my deepest condolences to you all. I always considered Bill as my Uncle. He taught me so much in the political world and in life. He will be truly missed. The playhouse you guys gave the Twins when they were babies is still in my parents backyard and being used to this day. Every time I look at it it reminds me of your family. I will forever be grateful for him. My love to you all

“ Dear Dorothy, Ashley and family - He was a wonderful human being who celebrated every day of his life that we knew him. Bill's support and friendship cannot be summed up in just a few words about all the issues and causes he fought for. It was great working with him all those years in DPS and the Democratic Party. We won some and we lost some. All I can say is thanks for the wonderful memories of my favorite "poor country boy from South Carolina." What a life he lived to the fullest!!!
