

Allene Jackson

October 2, 1932 - May 11, 2023

Mrs. Allene Jackson was born October 2, 1932, in Camp Hill, AL. The daughter of the late Clyde Ware and Hattie Martin Ware. She departed this life for her heavenly home on May 11, 2023, at the golden age of 90 in Aurora, CO.

In 1954, Allene was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life Staff Sergeant Joe Jackson in Washington, D.C. To this union two sons were born, Norman and Shelby. She and Joe were married for 53 years. Allene and her family lived at Army bases throughout the United States and in Germany. In her early years, Allene did domestic work for many families in Massachusetts and New York. Her last job was at the Fitzsimmons Base Commissary.

Allene was raised in a loving Christian home. During her early upbringing, she confessed Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was the oldest of seven siblings and graduated from Tallapoosa Training School in Camp Hill, AL. Two brothers and two sisters preceded her in death, Althalia Ware, Rogers Ware, Annie Paul Farrow, and Bettye Millions.

To treasure her memory forever are son, Shelby Jackson of Aurora, CO, grandson Quincy Owens (Stephanie) of Denver, CO, granddaughter Diamond Jackson of Denver, CO, great-grandsons Joseph Owens and Emerson Jacob Owens, great-grandson Jay Opsal, sister Fannie Johnson of Middletown, DE, and brother Palmer Ware of Lithonia, GA. She will be dearly missed by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Allene Jackson will be laid to rest at Fort Logan National Cemetery with her beloved husband Joe Jackson.
