“You have always been a sunshine of light....Rest in Peace my Angel "- Ms Wortham

Lesia Wortham - October 29, 2021 at 01:48 PM

Thats a soulless reject who's just lost/pretending/or confused. There's no light unless you're retarded and an asshole trying to gain territorial pride like a dog has when it pees on a fire hydrant ans thinks it loves it by barking at others like it owns it. The city owns that fire hydrant and Satan owned that dumb soulless mutt you're pretending was a person. It doesn't go to hell, it just dies and stop existing after its biological functions like air to the brain and blood to the heart ceases.
