“ The last time I saw Ms. Harris was in 2012 at my parent's 50th Anniversary celebration in Tulsa, OK. It was a big surprise that she and Mr. Harris had come all the way from Colorado to join in the celebration. She was just as beautiful as I had remembered her from my childhood - beautiful inside and out. It was truly wonderful to see her and Mr. Harris still side-by-side enjoying each other's company like two best friends.

May her hope in the resurrection along with the prayers and good will of friends old and new help to ease the burden of this tremendous loss. - Terri Brewer
