

Betty Ann Wilkins

October 24, 1936 - February 6, 2022

Betty Ann Hamilton (Wilkins) was born on October 24th, 1936 to Nancy Hamilton in Gaffney, South Carolina. She was one of nine siblings Margaret, Robert, Olin, Alice Faye, Lindberg, Wade, Pauline, and Artis Mae Hamilton. The Hamilton clan was a large loving family that struggled through many hardships and had many joys throughout the years. They were most known for their lively gatherings, jovial storytelling, and singing folk music together. Betty met her husband John Wilkins while he was serving in the Army and cross trained with the Air Force as a Missile Tracer, at Selfridge Air Force Base in Michigan. The two married in August 1958 and moved to Denver in 1962. They settled and raised their children Sheliah, Johnny, Monica, and Janerio. The Wilkins family conjoined with the Hamiltons and Littlejohns sharing life together as “tribe XYZ.” Their family story dramatically changed and was rewritten under the Ministry of Booker T. and Olga Mays of Neighborhood Bible Church. It was there that they were transformed by the message of God’s grace, forgiveness and reconciliation through God’s one and only unique son Jesus Christ. Salvation and hope came to Betty upon receiving Christ as she lived her life in various stages. She shared this light in every position she worked as a Surgical Technician, Restaurateur, PTA President, and her committed community & political activism. Her work was instrumental in reforming Banking, Fair housing, Child education, Free School lunches, Livable wages, and Healthy conditions for Sanitation workers (Philadelphia). Her reach was so influential that it reached the fight against Apartheid in South Africa. Along with all her service, John and Betty also fostered 17 children and sowed into the lives of many. Betty Wilkins passed away on February 6th, 2022, at University Hospital. She leaves to cherish her memory, Monica Wilkins; Keita and Sheliah Andrews; Marpessa Allen, Bethany Andrews and Adam Witherspoon. Her great-grandchildren: Maasai, Gianna, Maayan Allen and Peace Nelson; Andy Sebagala and Desiree Etheridge. Her siblings Ralph and Artis Means; Fred and Alice Littlejohn, a host of nieces and nephews; in addition to her church families Berean Bible Church, Colorado Community Church, and Neighborhood Bible Church will also cherish her memory. An extensive memory book will be released this summer composed by Lady Bethany.
