

Braxton Maxwell Tatum

July 10, 1998 - May 14, 2021

Braxton Maxwell Tatum passed away suddenly on May 14, 2021 and while he will be sorely missed by all he came in contact with, either long term or momentarily, he will be remembered most for his mack-daddy lifestyle, (so he thought) and a desire to positively touch the lives of all he encountered.

Braxton was born on July 10, 1998 in Fort Collins, CO, much to the fanfare of the local wildlife (think Simba's birth in 'The Lion King') and yes, his Mother, Kyrah Tatum, promptly sang the song of the serengeti, 'The Circle of Life', with the nurses providing back-up choreography.

Braxton was determined to live his life to the fullest and really wasn't concerned about naysayers. He was adventurous and was not intimidated by the unknown, truly putting Lewis & Clarke, the famous explorers, to shame.

He was a respected and well-liked team member of HSS Security and had a handful of different assignments, including Sky Ridge and Children's Hospital on the UC Health campus.

Very much like the mumble rapper, Future, he had a following and the litany of messages received from places like Australia, South Korea, just to name a few, cemented the impact he had on people.

Braxton, his many outfits ("Do you like my 'fit', mom?) and his ability to go from 'Call of Duty' extra, to Mr. GQ smooove (yes, I said 'smooove' cause he would, too!) truly highlighted his versatility.

Braxton, Young B, or Brax-boogie, as he was affectionately called, preceded in death by his Grandmother, Pastor Salinday Luree Tatum (who will forever be remembered as teaching my son to 'cast out demons') is survived by his Mother, Kyrah Tatum, his brothers Andre Carbonell, Demitri Carbonell and Seth Cespedes, as well as a substantial amount of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends, both in the flesh and online.

Braxton's final desire was to be cremated and have his ashes spread in Las Vegas and if you knew B, you know that was his playground, though he couldn't gamble to save his life, bless his little heart!

My heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has reached out to offer sympathies and condolences.

In lieu of flowers, and/or cards, please donate to a charity that you know Braxton would be proud of; animal abuse prevention, veterans care, etc.

Memorial services will be announced later.

You were such a sweet kid
I think one of my favorite memories was the repel tower during YM bootcamp and you keep licking all your camo off your face around your lips...over and over it couldn't have tasted good.
From then on I knew I would also remember you! Rest in Peace sweet boy

“ Sending my deepest condolences; this was so sudden, sad, and unexpected, so the words are difficult to find, but Braxton deserves the respect, and Kyras definitely deserves the comfort. Praying God's blessings of peace, and comfort over all impacted by this tremendous loss. Fly high Braxton, and watch over your Mom. ❤️

This kid. Oh my God how I loved his sense of humor. He was always a gentleman and even at 21 years old, the last time I saw this kid he still called me Mrs, Rocha. He held tight to his beliefs but if you did not share his beliefs he would still reach out to lift you up if you were in need. He was brutally honest and incredibly intelligent. I will miss this human as long as I have to exist in this world without him. God bless my Friend and keep her in her time of grieving. I love you Ky. I Love you B.
