“ Me and our Son Lucas will always Love you. We never stopped loving each other, Just the Family and Friends knows how close we have been all the years, even we got divorced, we have been best friends. We had Problems we laughed together, we talked, we had month we did not talk together, we were sooooo far away but always close. Our Time together here in Germany was so great, when we got married, when Lucas was born, the Golf war etc..... but we decided to get separat and become friends and parents of our son, which worked great. Oh Dan Oh Dan, We miss you sooooo much. We love you so much. Your Voice your writing everything We miss so much. We Love you Lucas and Astrid
