

David Dexter Jackson

March 9, 1961 - May 25, 2020

“Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.” Ephesians 6:11

David Dexter Jackson was born March 9, 1961 in Denison, Texas, the sixth child of his parents, Willie Otis Jackson and Atheline Jackson who preceded him in death. He was reared in Denver, Colorado with his grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings, cousins and friends.

At an early age, David was baptized at Zion Baptist Church where he was a member of Sunday School and participated in the youth activities of the church. As an adult, he participated in various ministries at Zion until his untimely death.

David was educated in the Denver Public School System from elementary school through high school. He excelled in the classroom as well as athletics. As a young child, he was a member of the Junior Police Band. He played football for the East Denver PAL Knights and played basketball for the Martin Luther King Recreation Center Hawks team under the leadership of his oldest brother Jim Jackson (deceased). He also excelled in track and field for the All Stars track team with the Skyland Recreation Center, competing locally and nationally. David did not boast about his athletic accomplishments, of which there were many including being named a McDonald’s All American in his sophomore year.

David graduated from George Washington High School in 1980 where he was an excellent student and demonstrated even more superior athletic abilities. He lettered in track and field, basketball and football. He was instrumental in leading the 1980 George Washington Patriots' to an undefeated season which propelled the school to play in both All City and All State championship games for both football and basketball. He was named in the Rocky Mountain Newspaper and Denver Post Newspaper for his outstanding athletic abilities. David received numerous college offers and selected a full scholarship to the University of Arizona, to play Division I football.

After college, David entered the United States Air Force and served four years. He then joined the United States Marines. He traveled all over the world including: Anchorage Alaska, China, Europe and Iraq, serving in Operation Desert Storm. While serving in the military, he received numerous badges, medals and ribbons including the Rifle Marksman Badge, Meritorious Mast (2nd Award), Pistol Marksman Badge, Sea Service Deployment Ribbon (w/1 star), Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Overseas Service Ribbon, Air Force Good Conduct Ribbon, Air Force Commendation Medal, South West Asia Service Medal, Air Force Training Ribbon, Air Force Short Tour Overseas Ribbon, Air Force Longevity Service Award Ribbon. Shortly after serving in the Marines, David became a Deputy Sheriff with the Denver Sheriff's Department and had an outstanding career for over a decade. David was a member of Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Colorado.

He was united in marriage to Marie Burnside on June 10, 1989 and to this union was born one son, David Dexter Jackson, Jr.

He loved his family dearly. He had a wonderful sense of humor, bringing joy to all. David was more than an athlete. He fed the homeless; mentored young men and women; ministered to those entering into jail, by giving them bibles and encouraged them to get their lives together. David was an avid "Bronco" fan and enjoyed watching other sports as well.

In addition to his parents, Willie Otis Jackson and Atheline Jackson, David was preceded in death by his brother; James A. Jackson (Janet); his memory will be forever cherished by his son David Dexter Jackson, Jr; his siblings: Patricia (Michael) Rosier, Marcia (George) Pickett, Otis (Rita) Jackson, Carl Jackson, and Yardyne (John) Day; his nephews: John A. Moore, Gregory H. Proctor, II, Aaron Pickett; his nieces: Monique (Greg) English, Jamie Jackson, and Janette Jackson; his great nephews: Chance Moore, Jordan Jackson, Solomon Wilkins, and Gabriel Proctor; his great nieces: London Moore, Brooklyn Moore, Alayah Pickett, Armone' Pickett; his aunts Alma D. Johnson (Joseph), and Sherlyne Willis; his former wife, Charity Marshall; and a host of other relatives and friends.

David was an extremely gifted athlete and even more passionate about his friendships and relationships with others. I always enjoyed our trips to New Mexico and track meets around Colorado. David was always there to keep things in perspective and to encourage us all to do our best. Above all we had fun and we won, mostly... My heart is saddened at his passing. Rest in Peace my brother! “ To Pat, Otis, Gale, Carl, Gregory, Dena and your respective spouses/mates, and to your & his & Butch's children and grandchildren, plus the Alma & Joe Johnson family and all your additional relatives and loved ones: I am in shock about David's death and join you in mourning his loss. I still treasure the countless hours spent at your parents' home many decades ago, and being with your entire wonderful family. May God give you the courage and strength necessary to endure the pain brought by his death. Sincerely,

“ To the family,
I don't know where to start with the memories. We have so many and each one holds a special place in my heart. When I look at David's picture I know the final page of his life has been completed. He has done the work that was placed before him, he has left no stone unturned, he was a matter of fact person with a quick wit. He was always smiling and had a sense of humor that would always leave you laughing. He choose to remember having dinner at my sisters house and David sat by me, I don't think I laughed so much. David I will miss you, I honor you this day! Thank you for what you gave to the family and too your country. Take your rest Saint and know we love you.

He was nice, handsome, talkative and personable. Always had a smile when he entered the room. Too young and loved. My heart goes out to the family at this time of grief and I wish you all peace and comfort as you go through this difficult time. David Dexter Jackson will be deeply missed.
