

Erma Paulette McMillan-Paradis

February 28, 1948 - March 20, 2020

Erma Paulette McMillan-Paradis, age 72, died comfortably and peacefully amongst family, on Friday, March 20, 2020 at Denver Hospice. Per her wishes, she will be cremated. The cremation will take place on Friday March 27, 2020.

May God Bless her soul, as she Rest In Peace.

Amen

Erma was born in Denver Colorado on February 28, 1948 to Omell and Charles McMillan. She attended and graduated from East High School.

Erma was an intelligent, spirited and engaging woman who, despite facing lifelong medical issues at an early age, managed to live and experience the many joys of life on her own terms. She enjoyed travel, dancing, music and making friends everywhere she went. She was known for her beautiful smile and infectious energy.

Erma is survived by two sons Jeffrey McMillan and Terry Boyd as well as her grandson, Noah Boyd. She also leaves behind her younger brother, Charles McMillan, her nephew Jonathan McMillan (Tameka), her niece, Morgan

McMillan, her great niece and nephew, Aijah and Julian McMillan as well as a host of extended family and long time friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a date and time to be determined due to the current restrictions around the COVID-19 Virus, and in consideration of everyone's health and safety.

Tribute Wall

AR

“ I met Paulette through her son and instantly connected with her. May her beautiful spirit live on.

A. RIOS - August 14, 2020 at 12:42 AM

MR

“ Your spirit has been released from your worn out shell and now you are now amongst the all-knowing dancing with the angels. Wish I could have sat with you and listened to more of your stories. My sincere condolences to Paulette's friends and family.
~Marsha Rucker

Marsha Ruckerr - April 01, 2020 at 12:14 PM

“ The family of Erma Paulette would would like to thank everyone who has expressed words, thoughts and prayers of love and condolences.
Our beloved sister, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend and will be greatly missed.
She lived a bold and passionate life unapologetically pursuing her unrelenting love for adventure and meaningful connections with others.
While she will be missed because we all hold on to the memories of the fun moments we all got to share with her individually and collectively we know sure is now at peace. We can barely wait to celebrate her life with everyone who knew and loved her once circumstances allow us to do so properly and safely. We all know how much she loved a good party!
Until such time, we all wish you love and peace just like Erma Paulette would've done herself.

Jonathan McMillan - March 30, 2020 at 01:42 PM

JL

“ I truly liked Erma Paulette the first time I met her. She was warm, embracing and had a sense of humor that immediately made me relaxed. I will miss her smiles and laughter and caring spirit.
To the family, God's peace be with you,

Judy Lowe- Tarver

Judy Lowe-Tarver - March 27, 2020 at 06:02 PM