

Fannie Rene Taylor

November 8, 1928 - April 22, 2019

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Viewing

MAY 8. 10:00 AM (MT)

Saint Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church
2309 Gaylord Street
Denver, CO 80205

Rosary

MAY 8. 10:30 AM (MT)

Saint Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church
2309 Gaylord Street
Denver, CO 80205

Mass

MAY 8. 11:00 AM (MT)

Saint Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church
2309 Gaylord Street
Denver, CO 80205

Tribute Wall

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Fannie Rene Taylor.

May 08, 2019 at 08:15 AM

“ Wayne Center 2nd floor friends purchased the Lavender Reflections Spray for the family of Fannie Rene Taylor.

Wayne Center 2nd floor friends - May 03, 2019 at 05:11 PM

DG

“Wow! Where do I begin? My Grandma. I knew early in my life back in the 70's that she was going to be trouble for me with all the threats of butt whoopins and knocking fire from me. I mean how do you literally knock fire from someone? Chick was always wanting to ride the damn bus because she couldn't drive. What's up with that? She had anger issues too. Always breaking hair accessories over her children's heads and what not. Probably came from bad upbringing; I mean her Mother threaten to shoot everybody who came down Bayou Paul Lane. As I got older I really saw the light. Always folding your laundry in perfect squares like she had a ruler in her pocket. Coming up behind you washing your dirty dishes. I really lost it when I witnessed her putting salt in her beer. I was done. However I must say she wasn't all bad. She taught me how to appreciate listening to a ball game on the radio. There was no bigger sports fan around. Her only downfall was that she was a diehard Broncos fan but My team got their revenge. Philly Philly! And of course there's the OCD. Lawd lawd couldn't move a paper clip in her bedroom for fear of starting World War 3. And I say all of this with great endearment because I'm exactly like her. Will miss you and celebrate you until I see you in the company of Christ. Love you to end of time. FannieRene. David George

David George - May 02, 2019 at 02:35 PM