“ Gabe, nothing has disturbed me more in this life than having to say goodbye forever to you. It was a delight knowing you, to have you as my brother supersede anything I could ever ask for. I will miss all the nights we sat up and laughed since small children. I will miss you running to my defense with or without your condition. Nobody will ever kick it how we kick it. I learned a lot from you gabe, I always told you I look up to you. And right now I'm really looking up to you to help me through this process I will have to take without your guidance, opinion, love, support, encouragement. I'll never cry enough tears I miss you Gabe.

“ Gabriel you can now go home. God you gave us one of your sons and it was a blessing to have him in our lives. He can now Spread his Wings and Soar. Your darkness has light now. Your Smile will always give us that light that we will always see so my Nephew your Spirit and Soul are now free as God has you on his hands. Prodigal Son it's Light now Soar on Gabe and Spread your Wings. Love You

“ *Mr. Gabe, .
You came into my life at the tender age of 8 months, when I saw that face I knew, no questions, I will always remember that smile, the last time we talked I told you I love you, you will always be in my heart. I Love you bonus Son! God gained a sweet angel, you rest well my Love bug. You are FREE now SOAR*

“ Gabe your laughter, personality & smile were infectious ... I remember when you were about five I drove you, your brothers & cousins out to Uncle Kim's for a Birthday Party, you were letting us know then you were a force to be reckoned with; you didn't appreciate folks in your personal space. Very sweetly, yet stern, slow & soft you said, 'Landon, do I like a leaning post yo you?', that meant don't take liberties with my space; I knew this saying had to come from direct from Ms. Mary :) & I knew you said what you said & meant what you said a persona that I knew came direct from Grandma Barb. You are forever loved Nephew continue to soar high! All my love to you Gabe, Auntie Deb ❤️
