

Lee Micheal Fowler

August 13, 1985 - March 8, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

BM

“ Hey man, it's Peanut. I just found out and this blew my mind. I'm sitting down thinking now about life and how short and unexpected things can be. The last time we spoke you was with Dill. We laughed like usual over the phone. I'm praying for your family and your close friends. I wouldn't have thought. Big Lee. One of the strongest dudes I met in my lifetime. It's always the strongest ones God calls. Whatever your new mission is bro I pray you continue to fulfill it and you watch everybody who has love for you. A champ. Love and respect , as always. Rest easy bro 🏆 From Nutt

Brent Michael - May 15, 2021 at 10:18 PM

KF

“ I just miss my dad. He was a peaceful man. I miss him more than I can understand. I wanted to hear his stories, his life, his youth from him. The man who killed my father made a mistake. I forgive him though. I'll miss my dad so much. I wish I could have seen him again. He was truly an amazing man. I never got to see how amazing but more amazing than anyone expected.

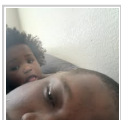

Kaiden Fowler - March 24, 2021 at 04:37 PM

DD

“ Lee was my best friend, my brother. He taught me so much about life and the people around me. He always encouraged me to do better and has helped me get where I am today. He was a teacher, leader and has a heart bigger than life! He was there for me when no one was. It didn't matter where he was, I was always welcome. I love you Lee, your memory will live forever in my heart. I remember all our adventures fishing, target practice or those long rides we'd take together talking about life. I'll miss bugging your mom to cook us tamales or your dad to let us take the boat to fish. You truly are one in a million and no one will ever take those great times from us. My hearts broken knowing we'll never talk again but I know god has another angel and you'll always watch over me.

Dylan Duchamp - March 22, 2021 at 06:18 PM

He was the realist I ever knew

Solomon Waldroup - August 03, 2024 at 06:02 AM

EL

“ Rest easy Lee! ”

Erica Hebert (New Iberia, La) - March 14, 2021 at 01:54 PM