“ When someone loses a loved one, you don't quite know what words of comfort to say, however the sincerity in your heart finds it way to theirs. Burney and I shared lots of laughs together and a bond that will always remain with me. My heartfelt condolences to Rae and that she be assured God will give her strength and comfort through the years and she cherish the memories of the time she and Burney had together. To my children, take comfort in the love your uncle had for you and cherish your memories as well. The pain is over and peace is at last. Goodbye my brother. I will see you in the dawning.

*Love,
Shirley*
