“ She was a long time friend. We had known each other since our late twenties. We lost touch till 2015 and we connected on Facebook. She helped get through some tough times and I hope I was a good ear for her. She shared her fears and anger and because I left Facebook I missed her death. I'm sure those that read this will not know me but I was happy to know her. Wish her family the best and be well. She brought a lot of joy to many.

“ Meta - I'm sorry it's taken me a while to post a message to you. At first I wasn't sure exactly what to say and now today on what would be your birthday I find myself feeling so many emotions. I miss you every day, your smile, your laugh, the great memories of wonderful friendship we shared over 2 decades is something I will cherish. I love you girl, and miss you very much. -Jenn

“ To My Beautiful Niece - I will remember all the times we shared as a family. The memories will always be in my mind and in my heart. From the first day me and Grandma Mary went to Iowa to get you and your sister, I will never forget. From the Halloween trick-n-treating to the Christmases times we all spent together as a Family. I will never forget the beautiful woman and mother you became, I will love you always and forever Meta.

“ From Tia & Tio:

For Our Extended Family...

The sunshine of our lives has gone dim, but it will never go away, we will see it in the little starburst she left behind, the son whom she loved so much.. we will see it in the mother who nurtured her through life, in the sisters who were loved and cherished by her, in the friends that she made and who were chosen to be in her life..you will hear it in the stories shared, and in the laughter of all who were privileged enough to be a part of those stories...you will see it in the pictures taken to memorialize those times...

So please remember, she is still around, watching and sharing all of your triumphs and good times...and when you are feeling down, know that our sunshine will always be there..no matter what..

“ Pretty Girl, for me you have personified 'Timothy' (4: 7-8) You fought a good fight, you finished the course, you kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, gave you on that day...

I will miss your smile, your giggling, your laugh..and your wit!

“ *My beloved daughter you took a piece of me when you left. This wasn't how it was suppose to be. I think of all the things I'll miss ,your smile ,your laugh and the joy on your face when you'd be with Kameron I don't know how I'll make it through this but when I look at your son I know I have to carry on so I can tell him about his mom. I will always love you forever and a day
