“ RIP to my old friend Misael Aydiko Ayele and my condolences to his family. Misa was a wise soul with a big heart. He followed his passions and worked hard to start multiple businesses in the USA. He was a positive force in this world, and wanted to be loved and spread love to others. When the good die young, it is because God had a bigger plan for them in heaven than on earth. He has gone to a better place, and he will be dearly missed. I am eternally grateful for our friendship. May he rest in peace. 🌸
