

Oscar Leroy Prudhomme

June 15, 1949 - October 6, 2016

Oscar Leroy Prudhomme, an aviation expert and life-long resident of Denver, Colorado, died unexpectedly on October 6, 2016, in his home from natural causes.

He is survived by his older sister, daughter, nieces, his cousins, and dear aunt. Oscar is preceded in heaven by his loving mother Dorris, and Oscar L. Prudhomme Sr.

Born in Denver, June 15, 1949 Oscar Leroy attended Manuel High and college in Tennessee. He played the saxophone in concert band. Oscar also played baseball and later coached little league. He loved music and every aspect of aviation. Oscar was a computer expert, he loved to build and invent. He was an avid music connoisseur with a very eclectic collection. He worked at DIA in his later years as a baggage tug driver. He won many awards and gained much love and recognition from his coworkers at Southwest and Simplicity USA.

Leroy loved to study music, philosophy, and a wide variety of subjects. If one were ever lucky enough to have a conversation with him, then you would see what a well rounded guy he was.

He will be missed by his family, co-workers and neighbors.

Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the album Oscar Leroy Prudhomme

Ballard Family Mortuary, LLC - February 22, 2017 at 04:43 PM