“ I remember how much of a grandfather figure you were to me and how passionate you were about the people you cared about and how you always tried to pass on knowledge and teach and embraced me as a kid that was abused growing up and taught me things to become a man there's not a day that goes by that I don't wish you'd just pull in my drive way with your fancy cars you had nothing brought more joy to my life then having you be there when a lot of men in my life couldn't such as my father or grandfather I miss you and love you uncle Ben and will never forget all ou Talks we shared.
