A good friend for 50 years.
I miss our volunteering for meals on wheels on Christmas &
Thanksgiving—holiday meals with Lou’s lasagna & your pea salad —card parties in 70’s—80’s—making peach jam for years—trips to Las Vegas & Breckinridge—a dime in a stream in the mts—breakfast on your lanai on Memorial Day with McDonalds a tradition —meeting at Observation park—thanks for your true friendship.

“ I will miss you my dearest friend Sharon and our early morning breakfast meetings at Sam’s No 3. You were my first underwriting partner @ Aetna back in 1983 and have been such a blessing in my life ever since.

“ *Sharon, we had so many wonderful times together back in the old

“ My dear friend Sharon. Oh how I will miss you and our hysterical laughter together, our trouble making antics in our office and the years of funny times spent together. You took care of your Mom throughout your Life, and now we are all Blessed to have you watching over us as well. I love you my dear friend. Tom Raynor
