“ I remember meeting Stan for the first time, in the Fall of 1960, when we were members of the Freshmen Class at Colorado State University. During Spring Break of the following year, Stan invited me to go home with him to Pampa, Texas. At that time I met his wonderful family and close friends. One night, Stan said, "we're going out to the the Peppermint Cave!" When we arrived there it looked like a big barn, with a stage at the back of the building, a long bar on one end, two dozen tables and chairs with a dirt dance floor. The entertainment for the evening was some band called, "James Brown and the Famous Flames", who I never heard of before. During the intermission, a guy came out a fire hose and hosed down the dance floor to hold down the dust. Then James Brown came out for the Second half of the show and ended the set with, "Please, Please, Please", and I have never been the same since. Even though Stan has left us, there should be no tears and no regrets because he will live on in our fond memories. Thank you Stan.

My Condences go out to Anita & the rest of the Williams family. I am so sorry to hear of Stan's passing. I have known Stan since 1962 when I was a Freshman at Colorado State Univ. He was a close friend in college and in spite of the many years that had passed before we saw each other again, he was the same warm & fun-loving Stan. I also visited Pampa Texas and met his wonderful Mother, Father, Brother, Wayne, Sister Anita, his treasured grandmother, Mama Annie.& his Great Aunt Thelma. Stan loved his family & was always there for them as they were for him. Now that Stan has joined many of his loved ones in their spiritual home, I'm sure there's a lot of smiles & laughter going on. I'm also sure that all of them are watching over Anita & her families & Wayne's family. My prayers love, & deepest Sympathy are with you all.
