“ I Lee Colbert, (Aunt Pookie) along with my siblings, Aunts Willie Pearl, Ora Lee, Lillie Mae, & Uncle James Sibley are deeply saddened, we offer our condolences & prayers, to his family.... & have memories galore. Tyrone (our nephew) was witty, articulate, “a hot mess sometimes “ lol but loved ...one of my memories (1) I can talk a Ekximo into buying ice. Tyrone fought fought a good fight, he’s gone but will never be forgotten and loved. We grieve as well....Rest in peace 🙏❤️

My deepest condolences to our family members of Tyrone Williams Sr., Gods blessings, and peace. Tyrone, I can remember when we were in elementary at Allen High, Tyrone guided me through the first few months of bus riding for the first time, he was sweet, witty, and sometimes a know it all. He will surly be missed. Rest In Peace cuzzin.

“ Family, I am wishing you all peace and blessings thru this difficult time. It is so hard to lose a loved one and Tyrone will definitely be missed. He was truly loved and we all (cousins and family) could speak on him forever cause he was an intelligent and funny character. I once told him to stop looking at me with those funny colored eyes! I enjoyed every childhood summer spent with him in Powhatan. Even when he got on my nerves asking Aunt Betty for a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Our memories will help us get thru the days ahead. Let's continue to reach out and lean on one another. My warmest condolences.
