“ I met Valarie when we were practicing our Ballroom Dance routine for the Breast Cancer event that Dave Carver had choreographed. She told me that I was the most patient person, when I was teaching her the steps to the dance routine. My condolences goes out to her family. She was a very distinguished lady, who carried herself in a dignified manner.

“ Our hearts are heavy right now. A beautiful soul has moved on to a new home. Ms. Valarie was a dear friend to our family. She attended all of our family events, regardless if it was a holiday, birthday, wedding, or baby shower, she was always there. I remember she introduced us to the Macy's Perfume Parties. We always had a good time. We will miss her so. Our deepest condolences to Christopher, Ed, Gwen and the family.
