Hi Wanda, I found the note you wrote me! I was delighted to find it. I'm guessing you placed it there for me to find and read...smart move from a smart lady! It was sure an experience working at First Nationwide, I remember it fondly and over the years I thought of you often. I was so sorry to hear that you passed, but I am glad you are at Home with the Lord and your dear father, and at Peace. Thank you for the friendship you extended to me at FNB. And thank you for the note I found a good 30 years later! Unbelievable and what a pleasant surprise. Until we meet again dear Wanda! A big hug from me to you....Rozelle XOXO

“ Miss Wanda, there is too much to say about her and so little space. Miss Wanda does her job extremely well as a quality member. I could not count how many times she had corrected the staggers in our facility on what pallet goes to what door. She goes on and tell even the young stubborn adults about their mistakes. She is well respected within our team and respected throughout SMF5.
