“ I have so many fond memories of Jim. One of my favorites is when he and Shirley took me to the Rocky mountains. On that same trip he and I rode bikes all around Denver. He was one of the people who gave me my love for hiking and the outdoors. He was a wonderful uncle and a great example for how to live life to the fullest.

Rest in peace Jim. I will always, remember you as you were, when we grew up in Altamonte Springs and as we went to school at Crooms High School AKA Crooms Academy. Aaron N. Sumpter
